

Purina® Farm to Flock® Hen Treats

Protein Blend for Hens + Larvae for Ladies™

Purina® Farm to Flock® Hen Treats offer whole-food goodness your birds need in a treat they will love.

Adult Chickens Use as a treat to complement a complete feed.

PURINA® FARM TO FLOCK® PROTEIN BLEND FOR HENS

Spoil your hens, not their diet

Balanced recipe made with goodies like wheat, safflower, peas, papaya, pumpkin seeds and black soldier fly larvae.

Sustainable protein source

Insect protein requires less land per pound of protein than other common protein sources.

High-protein treat

Specially formulated high-protein nugget that provides an added nutritional boost to help keep birds strong; a great treat option especially during molt when birds need additional protein.

Delicious taste

Wholesome combination of scrumptious goodies.

PURINA® FARM TO FLOCK® LARVAE FOR LADIES™

Carefully made with whole, dried black soldier fly larvae

Specially selected for your hens' enjoyment.

Sustainable protein source

Insect protein requires less land per pound of protein than other common protein sources.

Fun, easy way to treat your ladies

Watch your ladies come running for their favorite tasty snack.

FEEDING DIRECTIONS

Feed as a treat to adult hens (18+ weeks of age or older) up to 2 tablespoons per bird daily. Feed along with a complete and balanced Purina® Poultry diet. No more than 10% of the daily diet should come from Farm to Flock® Hen Treats.
